Legislative Synopsis.

The recent Legislature passed about

1,600 bills, mostly of a local or private nature, less than 200 of them being general laws. The expense of the session and the appropriations made amount to about $200,000.

They turned all our rivers, except the portions of Green and Barren river covered by the lease to the G.

B. R. R. Co., over to the United States Government, that it may improve their navigation as it deems proper.

The trains on the treasury of the State were considerably lessened by reducing the number of district courts, abolishing all save four of the Criminal and Common Pleas Courts and creating eighteen Circuit Courts, and best of all reducing the salary from $3,000 to $2,400. There are now 10 courts less than before, which, together with the reduction of salaries, amounts to an annual saving of $42,700. They made some reductions that we cannot commend, but disprove of. The reduction of the per diem of jury men was uncalled for, as it was already low enough. We are glad to add that our Representatives oppose this.

The cutting down of fees of Justices attending Courts of claims we also think uncalled for, as it was hardly needed, as it was hardly needed, as it was hardly need-

THE SOUTH KENTUCKIAN.

CHAS. M. MEACHAM, Editor.
HOPKINSVILLE, JUNE 1, 1890.

The Nashville Centennial closed last week.

Missouri and Louisiana Democrats send unopposed delegates.

There will be some very interesting news in the papers for the next few days.

The Paris Citizen thinks Seymour and Thurman would make the strongest ticket.

If Blaine fails this time he might as well bid farewell to all hopes of ever being President.

About forty editors have already signified their intention to attend the Press Convention.

It was a cut-a trophy when the nocturnal feline serenader was captured with a brickbat.

Dr. J. P. Cullom, of Hot Springs, has our thanks for a copy of the Telegraph of that city.

The names of 4,500 New York Republicans who will not vote for Grant, have been sent to the Tribune.

The outside pages of the Gallatin Tennesseean and Metropolis Democrat are as much alike as two peas.

The papers are now busy telling snake stories. Zeno Young is saving his till after the Press Convention.

The Trigg Democrat has picked his flint and come again. Pull Trigg-for Uncle Sammy, Judge.

Don't forget that the primary election will come off on Saturday the 12th inst. Be sure and go to the polls and vote for the best men.

Blanton Duncan has sued the Courier-Journal for libel to the tune of $25,000, for charging that he participated in the Know-Nothing riots of 1855.

According to the Intelligencer, an anti-Tilden paper, California sends an unopposed delegation of eight for Thurman, one for Seymour, and one for Field.

It shows certain Congressmen up in rather a bad light to be so violently opposing Mr. Tilden, when they, four years ago, agreed to a compromise that defrauded him of his rights.

The Parola (Texas) Watchman still keeps Judge Church's name at the head of its columns as its candidate for Vice-president, notwithstanding he has been dead several weeks.

Some kind of a show looked at quite a number of empty chairs at City Hall last Friday night.—Henderson News.

But four dollars you didn't get the usual "complimentaries."

It seems that tempus does not always fly at a very rapid rate. A young lady in this city who was "sweet sixteen" when the census was taken in 1870 is now just "nineteen" her next birthday.

Henry Burnett, Esq., of this place, has read every word in the Green-Hargis trial so far, and expects to read what is to come.—Paducah Enterprise.

We learn that Mr. Burnett still lives and his physician is hopeful that his life can be saved.

It is highly important that every Democrat in the county should go to the polls on Saturday the 12th inst. and vote for the best men for Judge and Attorney. Let the vote be a full one and let the defeated parties gracefully bow to the will of the majority.

To-morrow will be the most eventful day in the history of the Republican party. Their National Convention will be called upon to select a standard-bearer for the coming general campaign. It will be neither Grant nor Blaine from present indications.

The Clarksville papers are urging the closing of the stores at 6 o'clock. That is just the time the Hopkinsville girls begin to circulate upon the streets on their shopping expeditions, and from that time till sunset they make them fairly sparkle with beauty.

The writer will leave for the Press Convention at Ashland, via Louisville, next Monday, at 7:40, a. m. We have not missed a single issue for fourteen months, and we are sure our readers will cheerfully grant us this temporary cessation from our labors. We will be absent one week and possibly two.

The gavel to be used in the Chicago convention will be made of a piece of wood taken from the house in Springfield formerly occupied by Abraham Lincoln. Making the gavel from the house of the dead is probably intended to represent the condition the party will be in after the election.

Hon. Henry D. McHenry, of Ohio county, is favorably spoken of as a delegate to Cincinnati from this district. We know of no better man for the position. He is a tried and true Democrat, well posted in the current political events of the day and a firm friend of Mr. Tilden's. He would be one of the best men in the district to send as a Tilden delegate and we trust he may be selected for the place.

Mass Meeting.

Next Saturday is the day for the Democratic Mass Meeting at the Court House, to decide who is the choice of this county for President. While we are convinced that the people of the county are overwhelmingly for Tilden we think it best to send delegates unopposed to the Lexington Convention. The Democratic party has reached the most important crisis in its history and it behooves us to move with the utmost caution. One false step may precipitate us to the depths of defeat. Phlegmas-like we are to-day overshadowed by a huge stone of uncertainty which may be precipitated upon us if we do not exercise due wisdom and discretion in selecting some one to remove it.

Fellow-Democrats, if we do not prudently a "Bradock's defeat" awaits us. We do not presume to be the "beardless boy to teach a British General how to fight," but we have tried to keep posted in regard to every move that has been made upon the political checker-board, and this is no time for foolishness. We must select our strongest man, we must unite upon him to a man and use every effort, and we believe success awaits us. But if we let "party strife and blind ambition hawk at and tear us, if madness and folly separate us, then our glorious old battle-flag, tattered and torn, will trail in the dust of defeat, and routed and beaten our valiant soldiers of Democracy will be driven from the field of glory and the enemy will march victoriously into power for the next four years. God forbid that we should ever see another exponent of a party of fraud and corruption disgrace the chair occupied by a Washington, a Jefferson and a Jackson. Then let us bury all disposition to wrangle and contend and go into convention realizing the importance of the crisis. Next Saturday we will speak, and it will be our only opportunity to express our preferences as individual voters. We all have these preferences, but let us not be wedded to the claims of any one man. We may be honest in our convictions and yet be wrong. This is the last appeal we can make to the Democrats of Christian county. When our county has spoken our word is ended, we can then be only a spectator to the future action of the State and the Nation. We have believed sincerely and honestly that Samuel J. Tilden was the one man above all others who should be chosen to lead us to victory. We have done what we could to make our readers see him in the same light. We have studied the current political news with the greatest vigilance, and now in our last appeal to the noble Democracy of Christian county we say that we believe Samuel J. Tilden is to-day the greatest and the ablest man in the Democratic party. He is the leader and the only one who has won a victory for us in the last twenty years. The logic of the situation and the critical emergency of the crisis demand his nomination, but we do not presume to put our judgment against that of the National Convention, and therefore we think it best to send delegates unopposed to Cincinnati. Therefore, to attain this end, our county delegates should go without instructions. Send good men and true, who have the success of the party at heart and your duty will be done. Then let everybody turn out next Saturday, so that the Convention will express the sentiments of the county and not a few men only. Remember the importance of the matter, remember that this is the last opportunity you will have to speak on the subject, remember your duty and remember the time, Saturday, May 5th, at 2 o'clock, p. m.

We would be glad if some of our subscribers would send us in a little change to take with us on our next week. We might get a chance to buy a railroad or something of the kind real cheap and would like to be prepared to make the investment.

Don't get the Democratic Mass Convention mixed. The first meets next Saturday to appoint delegates to the State convention and the other is held the following Saturday to nominate district Judge and Attorney.

The Tilden men should see that the delegates to the State convention are taken from their ranks. Tilden delegates unopposed will do just as well as to have them instructed, the victory will be all the same.

The visit of the Kentucky editors to Ashland in June, is to be one grand triumphal march. From the time of arrival at Mayville to the end of the meeting is to be one continued ovation all along the line.—Ashland Republican.

Since the committee learned that Bro. Young of the Times would attend the meeting of the Press gang, they have started ten men out to canvass Boyd county, and buy up all the spring chickens, for the occasion.

Zeno Young will chaperone us at the Press Convention. We will leave this place together next Monday morning.

The Louisville Female High school graduated sixty-one young ladies last week. Sixty-one more candidates for matrimony.

"A Tramp Abroad," a new book by Mark Twain is just out.

Nearly every paper in the district has maintained a strict neutrality in the race for Judge and Attorney. This is right. Democratic papers should not enter into local fights between good Democrats.

The Heavenworth Times gives this touching little story explaining why Mr. Tilden has never married:

The story of Tilden's life is the saddest page in all the long history of his eventful life. Let him tell the people how in the first bloom of early manhood he was betrothed to a beautiful lady of one of the old families of New York; how her parents decreed that on account of her youth she should spend two summers in Europe before her marriage; how they pledged eternal fidelity to each other, and registered their vows at parting that no matter how many years might intervene, each heart should beat sacredly for the other till a kinder fate should reunite them; how the loved one sailed away in the famous but ill-fated steamship President, from which no tidings have ever yet been brought back; how annually, on the day that the farewell was spoken, he repairs to the seashore and listening to the sea murmur of the waves renews his vow; and how, through all the temptations that have come with a long life of influence, wealth and power, the pledge of his youth has been faithfully kept, and his heart has remained sacredly true to his first love while the years glide by.

Things are at a white heat in Chicago to-day.

It is not always the crack of the whip we hear when a loving couple are riding before us in a buggy at night.

Christian county will be entitled to nine delegates to the State Convention. Let Tilden men be selected and instructed to vote together, is all we ask.

STATE NEWS.

Paducah's population is 13,000. One of the Lexington census enumerators is a negro.

The Paducah News has a new power press.

Thos. Walters, of Russell county, was killed by a mule last week.

A jury composed entirely of negroes sat in Mayville last week.

The Logan Sentinel is out again, having survived the fire.

Jno. Bradley, suicided by drowning in Harrison county.

Jno. Gaines wants a baseball club at Paducah.

A man in Paris has lived in the same house for 58 years.

The body of a little girl was found floating in the river near Mayville.

Wm. Heady, of Webster county, was killed and killed by a horse last week.

Another coal oil accident at Newport took the life of Tillie Keifer, age 14.

Jerry Little, charged with killing Judge Burnett, in Breathitt county, has been tried and acquitted.

One of the census enumerators in Clay county is a woman, Mrs. Mary L. White.

Mr. J. T. Quisenberry, of Clark, has bought 700 lambs at 4 cents. to be delivered this month.

The shorthand testimony in the Green-Hargis case covered 6,000 pages of legal cap paper.

The General Association of Kentucky Baptists met at Owensboro last week.

Miss May Pinkston has been sent to the Poor house in Crittenden county.

Hon. J. Proctor Knott will address the Tennessee Press Convention at Jackson, June 15.

The Boyd county Express says in one week the Norton Nail Factory made 4,322 keg's of nails and shipped 1,100.

The military companies of the State, will rusticate two weeks at Crab orchard springs in July.

Joseph Ferguson, town marshal of Murray, was shot and killed by Dan Jones, a saloon keeper, whom he attempted to disarm.

Mr. E. F. Madden, of the Louisville Post, and Miss Kate M. Sullivan, will be married in that city this evening at 8:30 o'clock.

Two little sons of J. W. Peek, of Lyon county, were out hunting when one of them accidentally fired off his gun killing the other instantly.

W. S. Parker of Lewis county committed suicide last week by drowning, at Vanceburg. He was 81 years old.

A red fox measuring 5 ft and 3 inches from tip to tip was killed in Harrison county the other day.

A. J. May shot J. B. Ferguson four times, at Lexington, last week. Ferguson will probably recover.

Geo. Yenowine, city editor of a Milwaukee paper, married in Louisville last week.

J. W. Dodd put $60 in a cigar box and buried it in his barn in Warren county, and when he took it up $10 had been cut to pieces by worms.

The first Penguin ever seen in the State has been killed at Madison county. It is a bird common to the South temperate zone.

The body of a floated was taken out of the river at Cloverport buried in the sand so shallow that hogs rooted it up and feasted upon it. Shame on the town authorities.

The Columbia Times lost a subscription and a ten dollar ad, because he said something about old ladies as a class and one of them took it to herself.

Two young men named Wat Bishop and Adam Hysinger were shot and killed by Albert T. Fish Jr. in a bagging fight at Mt. Vernon on the 23d ult.

CROFTON.

Col. E. A. Starling, next sheriff of this county, was down among the boys this week.

Mr. Ben Yancey, Jr., got his foot badly mashed at a barn raising east of here to-day.

C. C. Ladlow (col.) is erecting a fine dwelling in Crofton.

We see Mr. F. W. Owen withdraws, for fear he will be the means of electing a Republican. Well, that would be a fearful calamity—one that this grand old county, great as she is, good as she is, would never survive.

We are truly glad Mr. Owen is so patriotic and so thoughtful. There are not many men who would lay aside all ambition for the good of their county.

We see somebody asks "What is a Kiss?" Well, sir, we cannot tell now, we are too old. If a man had asked us at nineteen we could have answered; but now we would not give a mouthful of hot ginger cake for a piece of kiss. Such is life. Talk to a boy about love, roses and kisses. Talk to a man about business, potatoes and other things that are not too sweet to be substantial.

This is right, too; we ought to change, life is too short for us to move on always in the same channel.

Alas! that that plow quarrel has entered the columns of the South Kentuckian. Of course it will be as endless as a woman's tongue.

Some thief stole about five hundred silks from Wm. Kistner near here. He has no more idea where they went than he has of "where Moses was when the light went out."

If you want to see a smile that is "child-like and bland"—that is brim full of love—that runs clear across an honest face like it meant what it said—all you have to do is to cast your eyes over toward Jim Mark while his minister announces that he intends to hold a three days' meeting right under Jim's shadow—right in the middle of what harvest.

There was a young man here last week who wanted to sell "Twin bed springs." An old lady across the county, who did not exactly understand the matter, told him to leave her house, that she wanted no twin bed springs, that one baby at a time was enough for her.

If you could see what a rush there is here for the South Kentuckian on its arriving day. It would do your heart good. Young man, if you will only let the President making alone you will yet own a very famous local paper.

George Lockhart's mare gave birth last week to a very fine illegitimate colt. It is one of the finest and prettiest foals we ever saw. In our heart we are sorry that it has to make its way through this unkindly world.

Judge Daugherty gives it as his opinion that three-fourths of the people in Hopkins county don't know that Christ is dead.

Another fine rain this afternoon, and now the fields are spotted as if with diamonds with men setting out tobacco plants. There will be about three-fourths of a crop planted.

It is reported that the "green val" met with a sad misfortune one night since—that in the future she will be saddest when she—sirs.

HIRAM.

EMPIRE

A heavy rain, and plenty tobacco plants.

The South Kentuckian, gives all the news to Empire now and the people are happy.

Miss Celia Clements, of Spring Grove, is visiting relations here.

The picnic and bran dance at Chalybeate Springs the 5th is all the talk here.

Married on the 27 ult, Mr. Wm. Pritchett, to Miss Mattie Adams; all of this place. May they never be wrecked upon the shoals of time.

Hopkinsville should be proud of her candidates for marshal. Pete is a perfect gentleman and so is Tom.

Hurrah, for Jas. A. McKenzie, and his third term, but we are afraid the Chicago Convention is going back on Grant.

We would advise every reading man to take the SOUTH KENTUCKIAN. It gives all the news. Long may it wave.

The Sunday Argus wants the Press Association to vote Jno. B. Gaines a chorino as the most enterprising editor in the State.

John B. Gaines says he likes Paducah so well that he proposes to stick to that place with his nomadic Enterprise.

Chas. Cain, a farmer in Brockenridge county, plowed up a tin can containing $500 in coin, which some one had buried during the war.

Wm. Shaver, a young lawyer of Greenville, took in the Hartford Herald with a fictitious murder account, and the editor denounces him as a willful and malicious liar. Pretty rough.

Mrs. Dr. Walton, and Miss Minnie of Hadenaville, were the guests of Bethel Female College during commencement week.

Miss Carrie Pendleton, having completed her education at Bethel Female College, returned home, permanently, to Pembroke Saturday.

Miss Annie Ellison, of Evansville, returned home Wednesday after spending some weeks with the family of Dr. Jas. A. Young.

Cerulean Springs.

This delightful summer resort is opened to day for the reception of guests. All those who have been so fortunate as to visit this famous watering place will need nothing to induce them to visit it the coming season: Mr. Harper has made important improvements since the last season and is now prepared to entertain his guests better than ever. The first grand ball will be on the 17th inst. and every effort will be made to make it a success. Read advertisement of the Springs in another column.

Runaway Accident.

While Mr. Thos. W. Long and Miss Minnie Payne were buggy riding last Sunday evening one of the wheels came off and the horse became frightened and ran, throwing them out and tearing the buggy pretty much to pieces. Both of the occupants of the buggy were very severely bruised, but fortunately no bones broken. They are unable to be about but it is to be hoped they will soon recover from the effects of the accident.

New Drug Store.

The advertisement of the City Drug Store with J. C. Evans, as manager appears in this issue. Mr. Evans is a clever, genial and courteous gentleman and a skillful and experienced druggist and we bespeak for him a liberal patronage. He has just fitted up the stand next to Howe's and laid in a full and choice stock of drugs, cigars, tobacco etc. and will be glad to serve his friends. His store presents a very attractive appearance. Give him a call.

Church Hill Grange No. 109.

will have a stock sale at their hall on Friday June 4th at 9 o'clock a.m. All dealers in stock are invited to attend. By order of the Grange.

HERE AND THERE.

Strawberries are getting scarce. One more week of entertainments and all is over.

The First Presbyterian Church will be done by August.

A good deal of tobacco was set out during the season last week.

Baylor Hickman, who was hurt some days since, is out again.

It is a great inconvenience having the barbershops closed on Sunday.

Dr. Keen occupied the pulpit at the Methodist church Sunday night.

We had the nine muses last, and will have the three graces this week.

Guess what Hopkinsville's population will be according to the present census?

The wet weather last week somewhat retarded the ripening of the wheat.

Tickets for the South Kentucky College concerts will be on sale at Gish & Garner's.

Each census enumerator will mount his Pegases to-day, and begin to ask questions.

The examinations of Hopkinsville High School will begin to-morrow and continue three days.

The census enumerators begin their work to-day. It will have to be completed during the month.

When a young gentleman comes 125 miles to see a young lady, what is the most natural inference to be drawn?

A ball was given at the Court House last Tuesday night. It was gotten up on short notice and was not largely attended.

A freight train was wrecked about two miles north of town Friday evening, detaining the passenger train several hours.

A fight between two negro street gamblers served to vary the monotony while the crowd was waiting for the train at the depot Friday evening.

Don't forget the mass meeting at the Court House Saturday. It is highly important that a full country delegation should be present.

The Baptist Sunday School now meets at the Bethel Female College, and will continue to do so till the church is ready to be used.

The closing exercises of South Kentucky College, will be held at Mozart Hall, on Wednesday and Thursday evening of this week. Tickets for sale at Gish & Garner's.

Go to J. W. McClannahan & Co's for any and everything in the drug line. In addition to their complete stock of drugs they have also the choicest brands of cigars and tobacco.

The agents of the Southern Lightning Rod company not being satisfied with the territory of Logan county, have returned to this county, and will remain until it is thoroughly canvassed.

Jas. M. Howe, our leading jeweler, has just received another large stock of watches, both silver and gold. They are all reliable goods and he is offering them at exceedingly low prices.

If your eyes are failing go to Howe's jewelry store and get fitted with a pair of spectacles. He keeps the largest stock, finest quality, lowest prices, and understands fitting your eye better than any other house in town.

The order at the concert last week deserves commendation. Hereafter a lot of roughs have taken it upon themselves to keep up a continual disturbance, but with one or two exceptions nothing of the kind occurred last week.

Don't fail to attend the School Concerts to-morrow night, and the following night. Prof. Cave always makes these closing exercises successful, and you should not fail to attend. Three young ladies will graduate on Thursday night.

The announcement of P. M. Owen, for re-election to the office of city Marshal appears in to-days paper. Mr. Owen has made most excellent officer, and there is no necessity for a change. The report that has been circulated that he was off the track is false. He is still on with fine prospects for election.

Several couples of young people went out to Mr. Ben Campbell's, one night last week, and were entertained in elegant style. The night was a very beautiful one, and the evening was spent pleasantly in promenading and sitting in the romantic bowers in the soft moonlight and talking love, in accents soft and low.

It was certainly talked by some of the happy young persons for we heard it, and in one instance the young lady was moved to tears. This can be proven by Mr. A. who was also a witness of the little episode. The supper was delightful, and the strawberries and cream were especially relished by all.

Days of Youth were Sweetest, Lena.

We have just been presented with a new piece of music, with the above title, by the author and composer Mr. Jno. W. Landrum, of Mayfield, Ky. The song is a sweet little ditty, dedicated to Miss Lena L. Bollinger, one of Mayfield's fairest and loveliest daughters, who is at present visiting friends in this city. Mr. Landrum is making quite a reputation as a composer, and this is one of his best and sweetest pieces. It is for sale at Hop-er & Son's drug store.

BETHEL FEMALE COLLEGE.

Examinations.

The examinations of the pupils of Bethel Female College were in progress last week and the results fully sustained the reputation of the school for thoroughness of instruction and progress in the facilities for the higher education of woman. Prof. Rust is a preceptor of over forty years experience and an indefatigable worker in the cause of female education and each year marks some step of advancement in the proficiency of his school. We witnessed a part of the examinations and were particularly impressed with the evident familiarity of the young ladies with all the branches and intricate points of the subjects upon which they were examined. It seemed all most impossible to propound a question anywhere in the books that they did not correctly answer. This institution has few equals in point of thoroughness, and the fact that the graduating class of the last session was larger than any year before, speaks well for status of the school.

On Wednesday night a concert consisting of vocal and instrumental music was given at Mozart Hall. The Hall was filled with an appreciative audience and the young ladies all acquitted themselves with credit.

Prof. Steinlager the teacher of music has never failed to give satisfaction, in the public exhibitions of the proficiency of his pupils. He is a thorough musician and under his instructions the young ladies could not do other than make a success of their concert.

On Thursday night the commencement exercises took place at the Hall. Nine young ladies graduated and received their diplomas. This is probably the largest class ever graduated in the city. At an early hour every seat was taken and excellent order was maintained throughout, notwithstanding the large audience. The young ladies read their essays in clear and audible tones which is something unusual at commencement exercises. The first to read was

MISS LILLIE WALKER OF HOPKINSVILLE.

Her subject was the somewhat peculiar one, "A. B. C." but she treated it in a manner that gained the attention of the audience at the outset. She advanced some good ideas and expressed them in admirable language and style. She was followed by MISS MATTIE SUMMERS OF CADIZ, on the subject "Look through nature up to Nature's God." She too handled the subject in a manner that displayed depth of thought as well as elegance of diction.

MISS MATTIE JOHNSON OF HOPKINSVILLE, next read upon the subject "Leaflets" and expressed herself in an original and entertaining style. Her reading was quite distinct, and received with applause.

MISS FANNIE ROGERS OF HOPKINSVILLE, chose as the theme of her essay the subject "Change" and depicted the inevitable consequences of Time's mutations, in sentences containing beauty of thought and well defined ideas.

MISS MATTIE MAJOR, OF CLARKSVILLE, TENN., was next and the subject "Live to some purpose, make thy life a gift of use to thee" was treated in an interesting manner. The marked attention of the audience attested the favorable reception the essay met with.

MISS ALICE HIRKING, OF HOPKINSVILLE, chose the theme "Backward Glances" and treated it in a manner, at times, of sad retrospection and again of decided humor. The whole was in poetry and was loudly applauded.

MISS CARIE PENDLETON, OF PEMBROKE, upon the subject "Oases in the desert of the Past" next claimed the attention of the audience. She pictured memory as an oasis in life's desert and expressed sadness at severing her connection with those whom she had so long loved and esteemed.

MISS ADA TRICE, OF HOPKINSVILLE, read next, her subject being "In my dream I thought that Life was beauty, I awoke and found life to be duty." The essay was one of much excellence, not only the matter but the manner and grace of its delivery these added to the beauty of the young lady riveted the attention of every one and at the conclusion she was vociferously applauded.

MISS MILDRED WHARTON OF CADIZ, read last upon the subject "X. Y. Z." It was the opposite of the first read and closed the exercises. It was read in a sweet tone and graceful manner and the fair graduate was loaded down with floral offerings at its conclusion.

Premiums and certificates were then awarded to several young ladies, and the exercises ended with the presentation of the diplomas.

THE LEVEE, at the college Friday night closed the pleasures of the week. The night was not propitious but still a good number attended and all enjoyed it finely. May we all live to attend many more as pleasant.

CHURCH HILL.

We took a sense of personal gratitude to J. Bankhead Dale for his ready willingness in offering us a chance to prove what we said a few weeks since in regard to the plow trial which took place at this place, but probably it would have been better for Mr. Dale if he had left out the vein of studied sarcasm that pervades his whole message.

We do not presume to express an opinion for gentlemen present at the trial who did not fully express their opinions, neither have we stated such. The gentlemen who signed the "Not So" certificate are supposed to be up-right and honorable and to have ideas but of what value are such ideas unless they are expressed! They are absolutely worthless in handling the present subject.

Mr. Dale states that "Baruch Walker, who was not an agent for Mr. Shanklin at the time of trial, was there and expressed his preference for the Oliver Chilled plow over all others. Very well, one man on the ground for that plow."

Messrs. W. A. McCormick, J. R. H. Coffey and others who were also present gave their preference for the Diamond Iron over all others, notwithstanding the Diamond Iron was very much out of repair, but unfortunately these gentlemen are not farmers.

Mr. R. H. Coffey offered his new Silver Chilled plow and $2.00 for a Diamond Iron plow, he thought the latter so superior to the former.

Others present, among them Mr. M. B. King, whose certificates can be obtained at a word, favored the Diamond Iron owing to its cheapness, it being a shade cheaper than the Oliver Chilled. Now, public, we submit the facts in the case for your decision and ask, who now stands convicted of error, and stands ready for sentence.

"Mack's" certificate &c., will rub the rust off the other side of the bell.

SHORTFELLOW.

RENSHAW.

The recent ample rainfall has made the desponding hearts of agriculturists rebound with renewed hope, hope of the possibility of realizing at least one crop for this present year, the wheat, oat, corn and cotton crops being doubtful.

Rev. V. M. Metcalfe, preached at the site of old Harmony Grove, on Sunday the 30 inst. His motive is, to raise means for the purpose of rebuilding the church.

The strawberry crop is affording a luscious substitute for green apples. It is found that more fruit exists in this section, than for sometime supposed.

"Rude's" frowns will be supplanted by a pale about next August term. Thirty feet is quite commodious for a minnow seine.

Rev. Wm. Boyd, a young, zealous, and gifted dealer in pure divinity, has established an evangelizing circuit on Trade Water and Pondwater, and through his eloquent and untiring endeavors, this neighborhood is being much edified and benefited.

"West Mt. Zoar orators" have found their calling at last. It seems to exist some where between the lecture ground and a Tradewater cove.

The Hon. Roy having become so listless of his health betook himself to the friendly shadows of a neighboring bush, while his wanted audience remained in suspense; at his last appointment, and forgot to proceed to the scene of combat till the small hours waned.

Since the rain 'tis quite in vogue to bring the tobacco slips within scope of the black art."

During last week some one broke in to Mr. R. M. Vaughan's crib and took off considerable corn. No clue to the whereabouts of the stolen property.

We rejoice to see the noble advocacy of the indispensable South Kentuckian for the coming Legislature.

Long will a grateful people point with pride to its worthy efforts.

Zr.

SHILOH.

Corn is looking well. Some tobacco set out, though plants are very scarce with some of us, while some have plenty.

Wheat is almost an entire failure. Some of the farmers tell us that their wheat is greatly damaged by the smut.

We had the pleasure of listening to lectures on the fourth Saturday night by Willie Boyd and Mr. Roy Salmon on interpenetration at Sinking Fork. The friends are talking of organizing a good templar lodge there, we guess the price of cigars and soda water will go up then.

A Sunday school was organized here last Sunday.

We are almost ready to congratulate the bachelor and widow as it is rumored that they will soon be married. Holdens are very numerous around here.

We learn that Miss Renshaw's school at the Brick church will soon be out. Some of the girls are very fond of Bay rose bud of course.

Eq. Wood, of Bainbridge district informs us that he and constable Johnson captured Richardson (col.) who attempted to murder Roach Glivins, (col.) as Emde stated in his last.

TOBACCO NEWS.

Home and Foreign.

HOME MARKET.

A GIRL ON USING TOBACCO.

The girl of '80, in the St. Louis Journal of Agriculture, says:

Some of your girls have been giving you ideas about the boys. Now I am going to try and give you some of mine about our brothers, for the most of us have brothers and they don't differ much from us. What if they do call us "poor little chicken-hearted things." We know we are not, and the right way is to let them know the same and show them the use of their tongues, and you will be all right, for I never yet saw a man who was not afraid of a woman, if she got an equal start with him. Don't be so hard on the boys. They are not the worst things in the world. What would we do if it wasn't for our brothers, and those that haven't any brothers for other people's brothers? Why, I wouldn't do without mine for anything. When they go away it doesn't seem like there is any one at home.

Now that tobacco subject is a dangerous subject to tackle a boy on, for certainly it is no worse than the girls using wax. What if they do smoke? Let them smoke or shave their heads if they want to. That isn't any worse than the girls using "gum tragacanth" to stick their hair down, or wearing black coat plaster, powder or paint, and I am dead sure the most of them will do that. If the boys don't want them, they can't run and ask them if they can. How and they get if the boys happen to make a remark. Yes, "you bet." That would be fit for tar, and that isn't what they want. As for boys using tobacco leading them to drinking, I don't believe that. I know boys, and just as good boys as ever lived, who have smoked and chewed all their lives, who have never touched a drop of intoxicating drink. — Western Tobacco Journal.

GARRETSBURG.

As Brad seems a little reticent of late, I thought a bit of news from Garrettsburg might interest your many readers.

The farmers are jubilant again; had a good rain for setting tobacco, which they made good use of. I think there will be an average crop of the weed planted in this neighborhood. The wheat prospect is rather gloomy; rust and the fly having done their work to a considerable extent, not more than half a crop is expected by the farmers.

Political excitement is running high. Grace and Syport are names familiar as household words, but G. being first alphabetically will lead S. on the twelfth of June in this precinct. As for Garrettsburg, the thing is settled. Graves will carry this precinct by an overwhelming majority. Presidential talk is getting up to about 80 degrees Fahrenheit and if our Samuel could be induced by communication from heaven or some means not pronounced by our friends as is sometimes charged by wielders of the pen to change front, Samuel the great would carry this precinct unanimously. But as Samuel the second is wielding his mighty pen against Samuel the great, there are probably some one or two old croaker Democrats, strangers to patriotism or love of country, and in whose bosom the milk of human kindness never flowed, opposed Tilden.

The health of the neighborhood is good; doctors complaining.

We are living high at this particular time, early vegetables abundant, particularly strawberries and dried chickens, which we enjoy muchly now.

Our much abused little city is still kicking. Three groceries and two drug stores, presenting a lively appearance. Playing marbles and pitching horse shoes seem to be all the go, and with two such jolly fellows as W. A. and F. D. to lead the band, makes it a charming place to while away a social hour, so the invitation is general and unlimited. Come one, come all, out-drink, play be merry and enjoy yourselves.

More anon. FARMER.

'Twas the custom in ante bellum days, in some country or other, for all the young fellows to collect together, visit a town noted for beautiful women, and help themselves to a wife. The book goes on to state, that these marriages, though hastily contracted, generally proved happy, and resulted in much good. The same order of things might prove satisfactory here in Kentucky, but then Lord help the poor fellow who goes to Dixon and runs off with the Pioneer lady. — Henderson News.
